Announcing 2015 Ault Park Concours d'Elegance Co-Chairs

CINCINNATI, OH –December 2, 2014– Announcing the 38th annual Ault Park Concours d' Elegance, Sunday, June 14, 2015, with Mercedes-Benz as the featured marque and special displays: celebrating 60 years of the Ford Thunderbird, the 70th anniversary of the Volkswagen Beetle and Future Cars from the Past. The show will also include thirteen classes of classic, vintage and exotic automobiles and motorcycles. The 2015 event co-chairs are Andy Gear and Carl H. Iseman.

Hailing from England, Mr. Gear, is a lifelong automotive enthusiast who has served the Ault Park Concours as a volunteer in varying roles since 2010, including showing his TVR Griffith 500 at the 2010 Ault Park Concours. He is also currently an officer and treasurer of the TVR Car Club of North America. Professionally Mr. Gear is a Finance Manager at Procter & Gamble in the Product Supply Logistics Group.

A Porsche aficionado who restores vintage Porsches, Mr. Iseman has been involved with the Ault Park Concours as an entrant since 1996 with his vintage Porsches and his wife's '48 Chevy Woodie as well as with the car selection committee. He is the President of the Drei Staaten Gruppe, a local 356 Porsche Club and a member of the Porsche Club of America. Mr. Iseman, formerly owner and President of Assistance in Marketing, Columbus and Baltimore, is currently an international marketing research field manager.
