CINCINNATI CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE SEEKS YOUTH JUDGES FOR 40th ANNUAL SHOW AT AULT PARK
Hagerty Youth Judging Program for 8-15 Year Olds Interested in Judging Fine Automobiles

CINCINNATI, OH – May 3, 2017— The Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance, a nationally recognized car show that highlights some of the most spectacular automobiles and motorcycles of all time, seeks to engage the next generation of car enthusiasts through its youth judging program, sponsored by Hagerty Insurance. The “Partnership for Youth” is a multiyear program between Hagerty and the Cincinnati Concours, designed to ensure future generations of car enthusiasts.

During the 2017 Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance on Sunday, June 11, 2017, youth judges, ages eight to fifteen, will have the opportunity to participate in an informative session on basic judging skills. The Hagerty youth judges will put their skills to the test, awarding three top finishers from a pre-selected group of display automobiles.

Any youths interested in being considered for Hagerty Youth Judging should contact Michael Kelly at Mkelly11@cinci.rr.com or John Mereness at johnmereness@gmail.com. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Each selected participant will receive two tickets to the 2017 Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance (parent or guardian must accompany the youth judge), as well as official youth judging hat, t-shirt and scorecard; lunch is also provided for all youth judges and their parent or guardian. For more information on the youth judging program and other Hagerty youth initiatives, visit <https://www.hagerty.com/corporate/hobby-support/youth-programs>.

The 2017 Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance is a celebration of 40 years of automotive excellence featuring award-winning vehicles from years past and includes special displays: 50 years of Camaro and Firebird, Tuner cars: custom tuners and factory-backed tuners as well as thirteen regular classes of classic, vintage and exotic vehicles, and motorcycles.
